

“The Significance of the Resurrection”

- 1.) The Resurrection Affirms New Testament Truths
(1-Cor. 15:14-15)
- 2.) The Resurrection Upholds Our Doctrinal Foundations
(Phil. 3:10)
- 3.) The Resurrection Affects Our Present Actions
(Rom. 8:11)
- 4.) The Resurrection Ensures Our Future Hope
(1-Thess. 1:10)

“The Significance of the Resurrection”

- 1.) The Resurrection Affirms New Testament Truths
(1-Cor. 15:14-15)
- 2.) The Resurrection Upholds Our Doctrinal Foundations
(Phil. 3:10)
- 3.) The Resurrection Affects Our Present Actions
(Rom. 8:11)
- 4.) The Resurrection Ensures Our Future Hope
(1-Thess. 1:10)

“The Significance of the Resurrection”

- 1.) The Resurrection Affirms New Testament Truths
(1-Cor. 15:14-15)
- 2.) The Resurrection Upholds Our Doctrinal Foundations
(Phil. 3:10)
- 3.) The Resurrection Affects Our Present Actions
(Rom. 8:11)
- 4.) The Resurrection Ensures Our Future Hope
(1-Thess. 1:10)

2.) The Resurrection Upholds Our Doctrinal Foundations:

A.) Makes certain, the forgiveness of sin.

B.) Indicates the Doctrine of the Trinity.

C.) Gives meaning to life itself.

D.) Gives an answer for pain and suffering.

E.) Links our resurrection to the liberation of creation.

F.) Gives us access to the power of God.